

The Michelli Experience

Vol #17
June 2011

I know it has only been about a month since my last newsletter but I have a major announcement, a favor to ask, and opportunity for you.

As you may know, ALL royalties for the book I released at the end of last month, Prescription for Excellence, are going to Operation Mend (which provides reconstructive surgery for wounded service men and women). That is why the following announcement is so important to me.

Announcement

Prescription for Excellence has achieved #1 Bestseller status on:
The New York Times,
Wall Street Journal,
USA Today,
Publishers Weekly, and
Nielsen BookScan Lists

Request

If the content of the book is of interest to you or a friend (leadership principles, customer service improvement), I hope you will consider supporting Prescription for Excellence's mission by sharing the amazon.com link with friends, blogging about it, or otherwise learning more about Operation Mend or the book itself.

Opportunity

As a small token of gratitude, I want to personally invite you to a FREE webinar with Dr. David Feinberg and me (TOMORROW - June 7 at 2pm EDT) as we talk about the book. You may register at:

Thank You

This entire experience has been surrealistic and I am struggling to find words to describe my deep gratitude. As such, I simply say a heartfelt - Thank You!

In your service,

Joseph
